Economic Overview of Brandon Manitoba

At the very heart of North America lies Brandon Manitoba, a city that has built its reputation on providing an environment in which business can succeed. KPMG has consistently ranked Brandon in the top 10 for overall business cost competitiveness of the Canadian cities it analyses annually. The diversity of the City's economy provides an extremely stable and positive environment for businesses to compete within the global economy.

REGIONAL HUB: Brandon acts as the service centre for some 180,000 people, including the entire Southwest Manitoba Economic Region which has a total population of 110,000 (2020 Census). The primary trading area includes roughly 60,000 people within a 30 km radius of the City of Brandon. Canadian Forces Base Shilo is located approximately 30 km from Brandon and employs approximately 1,900 military members and civilians. Located only an hour's drive from the Bakken Oil fields, Brandon businesses successfully serve the oil sector.

DEPENDABLE & EDUCATED WORKFORCE: Brandon's Labour Force is regional in nature and has proven to be an extremely stable, committed and well educated work force. The labour force is drawn from approximately 67 municipalities, with 25% of the labour force living in rural communities outside the city's boundaries. Brandon University, Assiniboine Community College and the Manitoba Emergency Services College provide a skilled work force to the city's employers year after year. This well educated workforce is a key strength of Brandon where close to 60% of area residents are graduates from post-secondary education.

AGRICULTURE IS BIG BUSINESS: When considering all types and sizes of business, Brandon is home to approximately 3,000 businesses, of which roughly 350 directly serve the agricultural market place. Brandon's ties to the agricultural sector are strengthened by the presence of an Agriculture Canada Research and Development Centre along with other local research institutions whom bring integrated expertise and innovative solutions to the agriculture and agri-food sectors.

ECONOMIC BASE: Brandon is fortunate to have a diverse economic base. While the agriculture community has a strong influence on many businesses, the diversification of Brandon's manufacturing sectors aid in providing a strong and stable economy.
